

Wizardry in Wood

Art • Beauty • Skill • Mystery

Wed 12 – Sat 15 October 2016 at Carpenters' Hall, City of London

Wizardry in Wood 2016 presents beautiful and extraordinary works demonstrating their makers' mastery of the art and craft of woodturning. Set in the spacious and gracious setting of Carpenters' Hall in the City of London, Wizardry in Wood 2016 features:

- Works by over 70 leading UK and international contemporary turners
- Two extensive, curated collections of outstanding modern and historical pieces – from the Daniel Collection and the Economic Botany Collection, Kew
- Live demonstrations of the craft every day
- Short guided tours of the exhibition
- Winning entries from the Turners' Company 2016 Competitions
- Many beautiful works for sale
- Exhibitors to show and discuss their work

“A beautiful marrying of art and craft”

Wizardry in Wood showcases the best UK and international contemporary turning. The first exhibition was held by the Worshipful Company of Turners in 2004 to celebrate the 400th anniversary of its Royal Charter.

The Turners' Company also holds biennial Turning Competitions. These were part of Wizardry in Wood 2008 and 2012 and will also form part of Wizardry in Wood 2016.

The Company's Wizardry in Wood exhibitions and biennial turning competitions play a significant role in promoting outstanding woodturning and introducing individual turners to a wider public.

Wizardry in Wood is organised by the Worshipful Company of Turners on behalf of the Turners' Company Charity.
